Data protection

1. Only data provided on the membership application form will be collected. Additional personal information of the member may become necessary due to changes within the club, particularly for insurance purposes or upon joining the football association. The member will be notified of this in a timely manner, but no later than two weeks in advance, and informed about the necessity of further data collection.
2. Every club member has the right to request information about their personal data stored by the club. The information must be provided.
3. The publication of names and photos of each member requires the consent of the individual member, especially for use on social media, in the press, or for internal and external notices. Consent can be revoked by the member at any time, and it must be promptly honored. Mentioning names may be necessary when publishing schedules.
4. Officeholders, especially coaches or the board, are also trusted individuals. They must maintain confidentiality regarding any additional personal data they become aware of in relation to members.
5. Upon termination of membership, data will be promptly deleted.

The provisions regarding data protection and personal rights have been read or read aloud, if necessary, explained, and understood.
